

What Will We Do in Heaven? Part 2

Revelation 22, Philippians 1, Ephesians 3

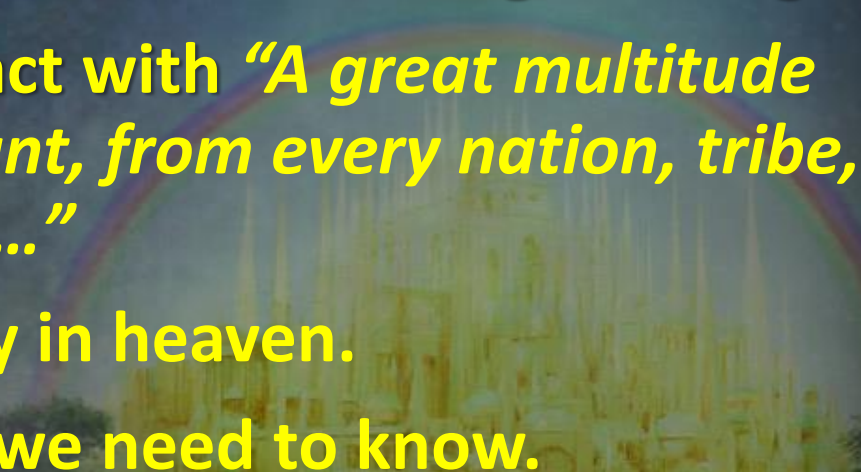

We Will Reign In Heaven

- We will reign with Christ forever and ever.
 - God in the eternal state, as well as the millennial reign of Christ, will delegate heaven's operation to His own people.
 - We will never fail in the delegated responsibilities that God gives us.
 - Our reigning in heaven is relative to our faithfulness now.
 - Our love affair with this age and system is robbing us of our heavenly reward.
 - We will reign by serving others and serving the Servant King forever.
- A faint, artistic background image of a city with a rainbow arching over it. The city appears to be a grand, ancient or biblical-style city with many towers and domes, situated on a hillside. The rainbow is a vibrant, multi-colored arc that spans across the middle of the image, partially obscuring the city. The overall scene is set against a dark, moody sky, suggesting a sunset or sunrise.

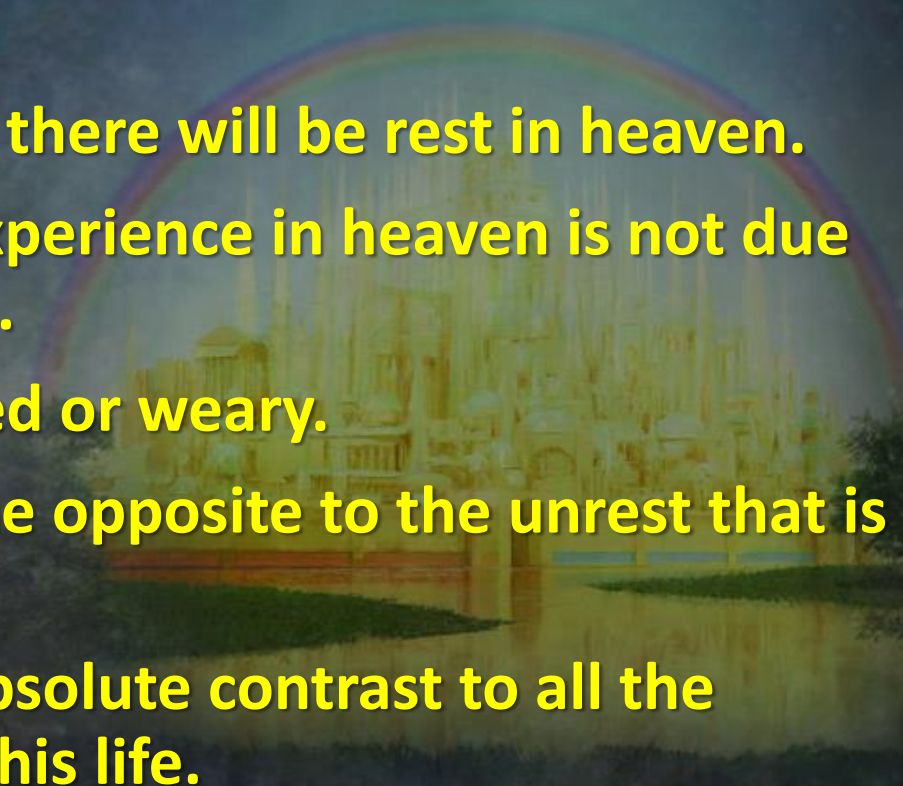

We Are Going To Learn In Heaven

- There is no suggestion in the whole of the Bible that we are going to know everything.
- If we knew everything that would make us God.
- In heaven, Jesus is going to teach us more about God.
- Learning of God will exhaust all the time and the energies that we will have.
- There is a God-intended pleasure in learning in which He is going to permit us to partake for all eternity.

There Will Be Fellowship In Heaven

- There is going to be a lot of people in heaven.
 - Heaven will be a place of never-ending learning.
 - We will forever interact with “A great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language...”
 - There will be diversity in heaven.
 - God will reveal what we need to know.

We Will Rest In Heaven

- God put the rest principle in place before the fall.
 - After the fall, that same principle is found in the law of Moses.
 - Revelation also tells us there will be rest in heaven.
 - The rest that we will experience in heaven is not due to the absence of work.
 - We will never grow tired or weary.
 - The rest in heaven is the opposite to the unrest that is in hell.
 - Rest in heaven is the absolute contrast to all the unrest that we find in this life.

Conclusion

- We should think about heaven so that our imagination might give way to anticipation.
- Let us not miss heaven for the sight of earth as it makes a lasting difference to our lives now and our lives to come.
