

Come and See

Psalm 66:1-7

CELEBRATING GOD'S GREATNESS

Our Focus Strays

- Our focus needs to be on God.
- We are to declare how awesome God's deeds and power are.
- God wants us to give testimony to Him.
- All the earth should worship God.
- Many submitted but it was meaningless and did not have any saving power.
- It is the power of God that saves us from our sins.

Come and See

- God calls all nations to personally worship Him.
- God wants us to hear testimonies from His people of His deeds.
- Vacation Bible School helps children learn how mighty and awesome God is.
- The Israelites did not rejoice until they were on the other side of the catastrophe.
- God controls ALL things.
- We should always look and say, "look at what God did!"

CELEBRATING GOD'S GREATNESS

Conclusion

- We are not only to tell people to “come and see,” but we ought to be walking around with multiple examples.
- We are to give testimony to what God does and praise Him for what He has done.
- There is no sin for which God will not forgive us; nor will He ever leave us or forsake us.
- When was the last time you explained to someone what God did for you in a saving way?

“Come and see what our God has done, what awesome miracles he performs for people.”
