Marks of Real Faith

A group of people, including men and women, are gathered around a table in a dimly lit room. They appear to be engaged in a study or discussion, with one person pointing at a book on the table. The atmosphere is focused and collaborative.

Staying Power

A man and a woman are shown in a desert setting, possibly Jesus and a disciple. The man is on the left, wearing a dark robe, and the woman is on the right, wearing a light-colored robe. They are both looking down at a small dog that is sitting on the ground between them. The background is a hazy, rocky landscape. The entire scene is overlaid with a semi-transparent yellow text box.

- Real faith is a life-long act.
- A key ingredient to your faith is staying power.
- Continuing is the surest test of a genuine believer, and remaining makes you a disciple.
- Staying Power is where the heart leans with all of its weight on Christ.
- Real faith rests on God's Word, and real faith has staying power.

Does Your Faith Rest on Jesus

- The “truth” in John 8:32 is a synonym for Jesus.
- If faith is a rope, then the rope must be tied to Jesus.
- Because Jesus has an intimate relationship with His Father, He has the authority to forgive sinners.
- The reason why all religions do not lead to God is that only the Son has the authority to forgive sins.
- If your faith is a thread, then secure it tightly to Christ’s death.
