

Dying Words

1 Chronicles 22:9-10

Solomon

- Solomon was the second child of David and Bathsheba.
- God loved Solomon and Solomon loved God.
- God gave Solomon incredible riches and fame as well as a long life.
- Upon his deathbed, David gave Solomon some advice that every father should give to their sons and daughters.

Know God

A man and a woman are shown in profile, looking down at an open book. The man is on the right, and the woman is on the left. They appear to be in a quiet, focused setting, possibly a library or a study. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light.

- David told Solomon to “Know” God.
- David had a very special relationship with God.
- David did not assume that just because he knew God his son, Solomon, would automatically know God.
- Your relationship with Jesus will only save you, because God does not have any grandchildren.
- We must introduce our children to God and encourage them to know Him.

Serve God

A man and a woman are shown from the chest up, sitting at a table and reading a large, open book together. The man is on the right, and the woman is on the left. They are both looking down at the book. The background is a dark, textured blue-grey color.

- David told Solomon that it was not enough to know God, he must also worship and serve Him.
- Nobody can tell you what God expects of you, except God.
- Regardless of what you do, there are certain conditions that are set on your service.
- You serve God with your whole heart.
- You can make a person go to church, but you cannot make them know and love God.

Conclusion

A man and a woman are shown from the chest up, looking down at an open book they are holding together. The man is on the right, and the woman is on the left. They are both smiling slightly. The background is a dark, textured blue-grey.

- God sees every heart and knows every plan and thought.
- God knows why you are in this service today.
- Regardless of how we rationalize, justify, or explain our actions, whether good or bad, God always knows why we do it.
- Everything in this life that is good, that is beautiful; all the kindness and all the love is tied to God.
- If you forsake God, He will reject you.
- If you seek God, you will find Him.
