

Living The Good Life

1 Timothy 6:11-21

Fighting The Good Fight

- Paul challenged Timothy to “pursue” the good life.
- We live the good life by focusing our energy on our spiritual progress.
- Focus on your spiritual progress in one very specific area this next year by reading through the entire Bible in 2024.

Giving The Good Confession

- Timothy's "good confession" took place at his baptism.
- In Paul's time baptism was considered politically subversive.
- The appearing of Jesus Christ brings reward to those who have made and kept a good confession.
- The awesomeness of God is another reason to keep our good confession.

Living the Good Life

- We can live the good life by swearing our allegiance to Jesus no matter the cost.
- Our personal confession continues throughout our Christian life.
- The good life consists of giving and keeping a good confession.

Laying A Good Foundation

- From a global perspective, all of us are wealthy.
- We are not to find a sense of security in our possessions.
- Those who have more should use their money and possessions to bring blessings to others,
- Laying up a good foundation in heaven helps us live the good life.

Living the Good Life

- We can live the good life by investing our resources generously in God's work.
- Heavenly currency is what we invest in God's work.
- God calls us to live a life of giving.
- The good life is a life of generous giving.

Guarding The Good Deposit

- God entrusts us to guard the Gospel.
- God entrusts us with the Gospel message to share with others and to keep close to our hearts.
- We live the good life by paying close attention to what we believe.

Conclusion

- Are you living the good life?
- Are you fighting the good fight?
- Are you giving the good confession?
- Are you laying a good foundation?
- Are you guarding the good deposit?
- If not, now is the time to begin living the good life.
