

What To Do When You Are Nailed To A Cross

John 19:30, Luke 23:46, Matthew 27:45-46, John
19:26-27, Luke 23:39-43, Luke 23:34

His Words Reveal That He Was God

- The first words that Christ spoke from the cross, revealed that He was God.
- When we sin, we sin against God.
- Only God can forgive us for being sinners.
- We are not sinners because we sin, we sin because we are sinners.

His Words Reveal That He was Human

- Jesus' statement in John 19:28 revealed that He was human.
- Sometimes we get so caught up in Jesus' divinity that we forget His humanity.
- Jesus ate, drank, and slept just like us.
- In order for Jesus to take the price of our sin upon Himself, He had to become like us.
- Jesus did not face "some" of the same testings as us, but "all" of the same testings.

His Words Reveal He was Savior

- Jesus' Words in Luke 23:43 revealed He was Savior.
- In Luke 19:10, Jesus defined His purpose for coming.
- At the end of His life, hanging between two criminals, He still remembered His purpose in coming.
- To all who believe, whether it be a thief on a cross or a teenager from Fort Worth, Jesus gives the right to become a child of God.

Conclusion

- Often who we are at our death reveals a lot about who we were in our life.
- As He looked down from the cross and saw His mother, Jesus wanted to make sure that she was taken care of.
- Jesus was not only the son of Mary, His Words revealed that He was God's Son.
- Along with His divinity was His humanity, and He was hurting.
- Jesus entrusted everything into his Father's hands.
