

Don't Be A Goat

Matthew 10:40, Matthew 13:24-30, Matthew 24:14, Revelation 13:16-18, Matthew 24:9-10, James 1:27, Matthew 19:21, Matthew 6:2-3, Matthew 28:19-20, Matthew 28:10, Matthew 12:48-50, Matthew 19:28-29, Matthew 5:5, Romans 8:16-17, Revelation 20:1-6, Matthew 13:36-43, Matthew 23:8, Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus Will Separate The Sheep From The Goats

- Jesus distinguishes between those who will inherit His Kingdom and those He will turn away.
- God allows good and evil to co-exist, but there is coming a time when He will separate the two.
- When Jesus comes again, He will separate the sons of the evil one from the sons of the Kingdom.
- God wants to create a work of art in each of His creatures.

Be A Sheep

- Ensure that you are an heir to the riches of God's Kingdom by trusting Christ with your life.
- Only God's legitimate heirs inherit God's Kingdom
- The meek of Matthew 5:5, will INHERIT the earth.
- The meek are those in Matthew 19:29, who left everything to follow Christ.
- No matter what state you find yourself in this life, you have an eternal inheritance through faith in Christ.

Receive the Kingdom

- Jesus identifies His brothers as those who follow Him and do God's will.
- Those whose loyalty is to Christ will be unable to buy or sell anything unless they declare their allegiance to the antichrist through the "mark of the beast."
- Believers during the tribulation will have to depend on one another for survival.
- To receive the King's messengers is to receive the King Himself.
- God's heart of compassion will move your heart to have compassion for those in need.

Conclusion

- Do not reject Christ and His messengers.
- Do not let an unbelieving heart keep you out of Christ's Kingdom.
- When you reject the King's messengers, you reject the King.
- You cannot get into God's Kingdom just because you look good on the outside.
- You must receive the King if you want to receive His Kingdom.