

A Mother Called by God

Luke 1:34-38

Submits Completely To God's Will

- A mother called by God submits completely to His will.
- Mary never wavered from her complete submission to God's will.
- Mary, like any parent, only wanted the best for her child.
- Mary was completely committed to God.

Does Not Have To Be Perfect

- A mother called by God doesn't have to be perfect.
- Despite the fact she was the mother of Jesus, Mary wasn't perfect.
- Mary made mistakes and you'll certainly make a mistake or two today, and more mistakes tomorrow.
- Through it all, God will love you, work with you, and accept you.
- Proverbs 31 - "A wife like this... who can find her?!"

Never Relinquishes The Title

- A mother called by God never relinquishes the title.
- Mary did not stand stoically and passively at the foot of the cross.
- Mothers never relinquish their title, even if their child is rebellious, harsh, or cruel.
- Crosses are different for every family, but crosses usually come.
- There is nothing like a mother's love.

Conclusion

- Mary was the most honored mother in the Bible.
- Mary had a chance to see God's entire plan played out.
- Solid principles for parenting are found in the Bible.
- If you're going to be a godly mother, you must immerse yourself in God's Word.
