A wooden cross is positioned diagonally on the right side of the image. The background is a warm, golden-brown color with intricate floral and scrollwork patterns in shades of green and yellow. A faint grid pattern is visible in the background.

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

What Easter Gives Us

Romans 1:1–4, 4:24–25, 8:11

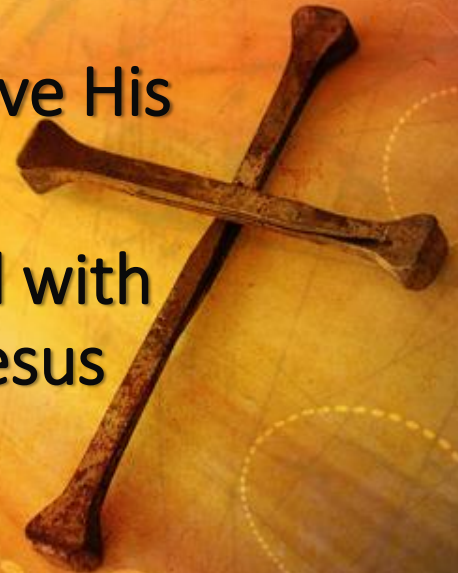

Confirmation of Christ's Identity

- We can trace Jesus' lineage back to King David.
- Jesus is called the Son of David.
- The resurrection did not make Jesus the Son of God; it simply revealed who He was.
- Jesus' uniqueness is guaranteed forever by His resurrection.
- Jesus taught that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected, killed, and after three days rise from the grave.
- Jesus is God and He proved it.

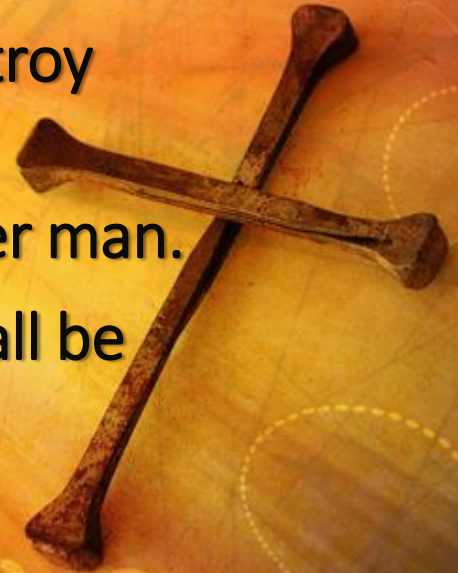

Cancellation of Sin's Penalty

- We ran-up a debt of sin, but Jesus paid our bill.
- When we trust Christ, God puts His righteousness on our account.
- Jesus lived a sinless life; therefore, He was righteous in the eyes of God.
- When we place our faith in Jesus, we receive His righteousness by God giving it to us.
- We cannot do anything to become clothed with God's righteousness except have faith in Jesus Christ as Savior.

Celebration of Life Eternal

- Everyone will eventually die; but the individual who has Christ and His Spirit will rise again.
- We are connected to Jesus by His resurrection.
- Satan believed he had defeated Jesus when He died on the cross, but that belief only lasted three days.
- It was necessary for Christ to die in order to destroy the power and fear of death.
- Christ broke the hold which Satan possessed over man.
- Because Christ was raised from the dead, we shall be raised from the dead.

Conclusion

- All of us carry a heavy load of sin, until we give it to Jesus.
- Because of Easter, we can receive a new spiritual life; we can be born again.
- People who trust Christ are God's children on their way to glory.
- Our Redeemer, who defeated death and the devil, understands how His people feel as they face the temptations and trials of life.

