God Desires To Reward You

- It is God's deepest desire to reward us with the great treasures of heaven.
- God wants to open the treasure vault of heaven and completely empty it out for us.
- When God measures our life, it will be for eternity and eternal rewards.
- We must not allow persecution and the suffering we encounter in this world keep us from holding onto Jesus and His Kingdom.
- When God measures our life for eternity, He will measure the strength of our faith to stay focused on Jesus.

The Measures Of God

- God will one day measure our life.
- The measure of God's personal love for us is so great, that He even knows the number of hairs on our head.
- God will measure every single life for eternity.
- For those who love Him, God will measure for great and unimaginable rewards.
- The work we do for the Lord no matter how small, is never lost or forgotten.

God's Records Of Heaven

- God's ability to measure is so vast that the Bible says God has a record of every thought, word, and deed of every person who has ever lived.
- God has a complete and total record of our entire life from beginning to end.
- God's record of our life is more extensive than we can ever dream.
- God is keeping a record because He is absolutely thrilled to reward us with the unspeakable treasures of heaven.
- God records how we used our prayers, our finances, and our obedience to further His kingdom.

Planning For Eternity

- Our life on earth is the tiniest part of our existence, even if we live to be 100.
- From the moment we were born, we will never cease to exist.
- One single day of our life has the power to affect a thousand years in eternity.
- God does not measure by riches, popularity, fame, or achievements.
- When God measures our life for eternity, He will begin by measuring what is in our heart.
