

Count Your Blessings

The Blessings of God

Matthew 6:25-34; Philippians 4:19

God Knows Our Needs and Provides For Them

- True security is not found in what we can hold in our hands but in whom we place our trust.
- Trusting God often requires us to step out in faith.
- Life's trials often fill us with worry and fear, yet Christ calls us to trust in a sovereign God whose peace surpasses all understanding.
- Anxiety often stems from a lack of trust in God's provision.
- Trusting God frees us to live in the confidence and rest only He can provide.

Living With Contentment

- True fulfillment comes not from earthly ease or material wealth but from a life anchored in God.
- Trusting in God means recognizing that a life lived in His will may not always be easy, but it will be profoundly joyful and purposeful.
- Unspeakable joy is not found in fleeting treasures or false securities but in resting in God's perfect provision.
- In trusting God, we find a joy and fulfillment that no trial or tribulation can ever take away.

Trusting God's Faithfulness

- Jesus reminds us not to worry because our heavenly Father knows our needs.
- Trusting God often requires us to confront the areas of our lives where fear and self-reliance dominate.
- God has promised never to leave or forsake us and assures us that He is working all things together for our good.
- God fills us with His strength and sustains us through every trial.

Conclusion

- Fragile and easily broken, our lives remind us not to store up treasures on earth but to rely wholly on God to provide for every need.
- We can experience unspeakable joy when we count our blessings and see the Lord as our provider.
- We must practice gratitude, cultivate contentment and trust God with our future.
